KIBITZ-15 Net

REF: EGQA 850

1. After the 14 February meeting mentioned in para 2 of reference, [] talked to [] as well as to me and more about the KIBITZ 15 termination problem. He was a bit upset that - according to his thinking - the net was not completely phased-out. He felt very strongly about this issue, not only because of his own convictions but also because he had - as he reported - been instructed by you to push forcefully for the discontinuation of this project. He felt that the action taken by the review committee mentioned in para 2 of reference could have been misinterpreted by you, i.e., that he, [] had not loyally upheld the position taken by the home office.

2. In order to ease []'s mental anguish, I assured him that the command would be not straight and you may be pleased to learn that [] has indeed at all times faithfully upheld and defended instructions you seem to have given him.

3. [] and [] are aware of this missive.

If we can straighten out 15 as easily as we can []'s anguish, I'll be very happy.
